Contemporary Prosthodontics Update Refresher Course

June 1-3, 2007

The John F. Johnston Society for the Advancement of Prosthodontics is pleased to announce a comprehensive two and a half day program on all aspects of prosthodontics. Speakers at this year's program include many internationally recognized prosthodontists with career emphasis in private practice and academics.

This program will consist of approximately 20 presentations by members of the JFJ Society and faculty from the Indiana University School of Dentistry. Lectures will average 45 minutes and will be presented on Friday and Saturday from 8:30 - 12:00 noon and 1:30 - 5:00 p.m. with two half hour refreshment breaks. The Sunday program is scheduled from 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon.

COURSE CREDIT

You will earn a total of 15 credit hours for your participation. IUSD is an ADA-CERP and AGD approved provider.
